The CMA Foundation provides grants to California medical student organizations to support health-related programs. Grants range in amounts from $250 to $1,000 and are awarded to programs that focus on education, advocacy, community service and other outreach efforts that enhance the well being of California communities.

For more information or to apply for a CMA Foundation Medical Student Community Leadership Grant, please contact Veronica Mijic at vmijic@thecmafoundation.org or (916) 779-6624.

The CMA Foundation would like to thank The Doctors Company Foundation and NORCAL Mutual Insurance Company for their continuous support of the Medical Student Community Leadership Grant Program.
